

SUMMER READING

Cultivate a lifelong friendship with literature!

Entering Sixth Grade

Dear Elementary Parent,

This school term has been very successful, and we are so grateful for the accomplishments of each of our students. We thank you for allowing us a year with your child.

It is a proven fact that “readers are leaders!” We want our students to enjoy their break from school – but not from reading! We require returning students to read and report on two specific books each summer. A list of recommended additional reading is also attached.

It is our prayer that your summer is relaxing, refreshing, and replenishing.

Sincerely in Christ,
John Policastro, Administrator

Students are required to read the two books for their grade. Please keep track of summer reading progress and complete the assignments. Teachers will collect the journals for credit in August. Have a great summer!

Students Entering Sixth Grade

A Father's Promise

- Write a one-paragraph summary in a composition notebook for each chapter in A Father's Promise.
- Then, describe at least three ways that God shows His power in this story. Give specific examples from the book (with page numbers).

Eric Lidell biography

Write a report on Eric Lidell's life in your composition notebook. Be sure to answer the following questions in the report:

- Who were his parents?
- What important things did he do?
- Where was his home?
- What dilemma did he have to face?
- Why did he make the choice that he did?
